What to Bring

Because you are packing for a back country camping experience one very important concept is to avoid using cotton and denim clothing. Cotton becomes heavy, uncomfortable, and does not insulate when it is wet. Cotton should be particularly avoided in socks, shorts, underwear and outerwear. Look for material names like wicking, Quik-Dri, Merino Wool, Cool Max, Capilene, Therm-a-silk, Techwick, and Poly-pro.

Do not overspend for this trip. Most of the items are common and ones that you probably already have or, could easily borrow. We do recommend that you use a good camping store for hiking boots and socks to keep you dry and comfortable on the trail. Two bargain camping stores are Campmor: www.campmor.com and Sierra Trading Post: www.sierratradingpost.com. EMS, LL Bean, and REI are also great stores for outdoor clothing and gear but tend to be a bit more expensive.

Remember, please label all clothing & personal items so that lost items can be returned to you.

- 1 lightweight non-cotton sleeping bag in a stuff sack and Pillow
- 1 nylon poncho or appropriate rain gear (avoid easily torn vinyl ponchos)
- 1 day-pack with shoulder straps (school backpacks work fine)
- 2 quart-sized water bottles for water storage (Nalgene style best)
- 2-4 T-shirts (at least 2 being quick drying T-shirts)
- 2-3 pair quick drying shorts (example: nylon soccer shorts)
- 2-3 pair quick drying (non-cotton) underwear helps avoid rash and discomfort
- 1 modest swim suit
- 1 wool sweater or fleece jacket (Non-cotton insulating layer)
- 1 Pair of pants (Not Jeans or Cotton Sweats â€" windbreaker or Fleece material)
- Old shoes, secure sport sandals, crocs or water shoes that will get wet. (No flip-flops!) Hat with a Brim (PA Health Dept requirement for kayaking/canoeing)
- Warm knit cap (for warmth should it get chilly)
- Plate, Cup, Bowl, Utensils (plastic or metal dishes)
- A small Bible in a zip-lock bag (lightweight size or a New Testament)
- A small Journal or tablet for Devotional times

- $20-$25 Cash (This is for travel snacks, and one meal on the road)
- Towel (quick dry best)
- Sunscreen (SPF 15 or higher) and Insect Protection
- Chap Stick

- Effective whistle
- Folding pocket knife (optional)
- Compact camera (optional)

Some of these items may seem excessive for warm weather but the reality of wet, cold, and wind is possible and dangerous in any season.Â We might not use some of the above items but we want to be prepared!
